

CODE OF CONDUCT

In compliance with Law 679 of 2001 supplemented by Law 1336 of 2009 and Resolution 3840 of 2009, RED LOGISTICA Y GESTION SAS, ties in to CODE OF CONDUCT in order to protect exploitation, pornography and sexual tourism with children and adolescents. Adopting and promoting prevention policies. For its due compliance, the following guidelines are defined.

- All our activities reject any kind of sexual exploitation of children.
- We reject child labor exploitation
- We reject discrimination of race or gender
- The collaborators of the professional organization of conferences, fairs and conventions, will not promote establishments where minors are exposed directly or indirectly to the sex trade.
- We will promptly communicate to the local police and / or competent authorities the cases of sexual commerce with minors that are perceived or detected and the suppliers that develop practices related to this aspect.
- We will trade our services without misleading advertising and without involving improper practices with children or adolescents
- We will raise awareness and disclose to the public that the sexual exploitation of minors is a crime
- We refuse all forms of sexual exploitation with children and support all legal actions to prevent and punish these crimes

Publish and fulfill

UNA JINÉCZC